

厦 门 大 学 经 济 学 院

School Of Economics, Xiamen University

I also recommended her for her comprehensive development. She has been the monitor of Class 1, finance department for three years, and has organized many activities throughout the whole department. I remembered once she invited me to the department's Christmas party she organized, where I saw that she had made all the preparations. The party was a really successful event and all the people enjoyed it. Thus, I saw her potential not only from an academic aspect but also in communication and leadership which are important qualities in the business field.

All in all, I highly recommended Mengyu as a qualified candidate of your program.

Yours Faithfully,
